

NORTH INDY

A ROUNDUP OF THE NEWS THAT AFFECTS YOUR COMMUNITY

+ @ NORTHINDYSTAR.COM: Submit your neighborhood's news and your photographs at 'News From You'

Joleen Leverenz, Indianapolis, took a spin on the kart track at Xscape, a new theme park at Lafayette Square Mall. According to Xscape's Web site, the park is the largest of its kind in the Midwest.

MATT DIAL / The Star

Trent Garrett (right) and his son Myles, 11, played air hockey Thursday at the VIP grand opening of Xscape at Lafayette Square Mall. The 75,000-square foot theme park includes a variety of activities, including bumper cars, karts, laser tag and a 40-seat theater.

The theme at this park is pure fun

Rides and games and food keep everyone happy